(It is important that the Director, Chief Executive or Chairperson completes this form)

1. Q: Is your organisation an indigenous and independent funder? (It would be helpful if you could provide some background detail of origins etc).
2. Q: Has it got funds to make grants to local organisations that it wishes to support?
3. Q: What are your key areas of grant-making - the issues funded or type of group funded?

4. Q: Please provide at least three examples of relevant grant-making programmes that you deliver.

5. Q: Is the community you wish to empower at risk of violence and is the violence of a nature / type that it recurs?

6. Q: Would you call it violence of a nature/type that is entrenched?

7. Q: Does your organization work in a homogenous or diverse environment and, if it is the latter, do the diverse groups have to work together to build peace and security?

8. Q: Is your organisation's work focussed on one section of the community?
Eg: women, children, ex-prisoners, victims etc?

9. Q: Other information about your organisation that you think it would be useful for us to consider when coming to a membership decision.
